

FOR OVERHAUL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 —

The principal results will be a change in status of the C. I. A. in the over-all "intelligence community," and a new channel for the funnelling of intelligence information to the President and his chief 'cold war' advisory arm, the National Security Council.

Nowhere was there a systematic means for putting the many pieces together in a meaningful whole for a President's guidance; and ~~that~~ Harbor is often cited as the place we paid for such a lack.

C. I. A.'s Function

The C. I. A. had a three-fold function. First, it was to coordinate and receive support from all other Government Intelligence

Function

Ward Jr. to make a parallel study

It has been learned on reliable authority that the proposal favored by these groups would, in effect, take away one of the hats hitherto worn by Mr. Dulles as director of C. I. A.

However, of Mr.
it was news-to:

about part the in-

4 OGO-

part-ne of

and is 1810 made at made

Fiction

been real ne

1994

1994

THE

11

101

17

17

It's common for [illegible]

1000

1990

"No, no, Comrade Ulbricht!
The Withering of the State comes after Free Bread for All, not before."

Opinion of the Week

MAJOR ISSUES

PROBLEM OF BERLIN

There is peace in Berlin and there is no need to disturb it. There is freedom in West Berlin and we cannot allow that to be determined or destroyed. There is no reason why this item cannot be solved by peaceful means.—SECRETARY OF DEAN RUSK.

* * * If Russia truly does want war it must show extreme interest in finding the boundaries of its own condition of greater security and tranquility: here is a negotiations seeking and establishing reciprocal guarantees and aided by good faith good will could bring about mutually satisfactory agreements. IL GIORNALE D'ITALIA. Rome

COMMUNIST MANIFESTO

Mr. Khrushchev's new program for the Soviet Communist party will disappoint those expected it to reflect the found changes that have taken place in the world since the program was drawn up in 1926. The result of eight years' experience has been to make the program more realistic and to make it more in line with the needs of the people.